

Review Planning Template

Introduce the novel, by title, author and genre.

Describe the plot, without giving away the ending. Include details likely to interest a potential reader.

Describe the main character, their appeal and whether the target audience will relate to them.

Describe some significant feature of the novel's construction, explaining its effect and appeal.

Discuss some of the themes and ideas explored within the text, relating them to a wider context.

Give your overall evaluation of the novel, justifying your view. Explain who the novel is suitable for and make a recommendation.

Additional notes

Context of review

Other notes