

Task for The Female Eunuch

True/False worksheet based on reading the 'Summary'

Students need to be able to justify their particular choices – either from the text and/or from life experience.

1. Germaine Greer greatly admired the first wave feminists i.e. the Suffragettes. T/F
2. Germaine Greer maintains that Betty Friedan's National Organisation for Women – which is still in existence – does not go far enough. T/F
3. There is no point getting equality with men, as men are also 'unfree'. T/F
4. There are two distinct types of feminism: 'Equality feminism' and 'Liberation Feminism' and Germaine Greer champions the former. T/F
5. The female body is created to be a compliment of – and dependent upon – the male. T/F
6. The differences between human sexes are stressed and exaggerated. T/F
7. Females are considered as sexual objects for the use and appreciation of other sexual beings – men. T/F
8. It is natural for women to aspire to the dominant image of femininity, which rules our culture. T/F
9. Diverse and thorough testing has not discovered any pattern of differentiation in male and female intellectual powers. T/F
10. The nuclear family is the ideal way to bring up children. T/F
11. Generally speaking, women are usually happy within the traditional system of marriage as it has played out over the last few hundred years. T/F
12. The revolution will free both women and men to lead fuller and more rewarding lives. T/F
13. Doctors, psychiatrists, health visitors, priests, marriage counsellors, police, magistrates – are women's allies in their fight for freedom. T/F
14. Women are by nature monogamous. T/F
15. Women are the oppressed majority and they can support the revolution by withdrawing their support for the capitalist system, in other words – their labour. T/F