Sequence of Alfred's life

Sequence of
Alfred's War

	Alfred lived outside.
	He walked from town to town looking for work.

	He camped at the outskirts of town.
	Alfred had grown up on a mission.
	When he was old enough, he went to find work.
	One day he joined the army to serve in the Great War.
	He sailed off to fight over seas.

	He was wounded and returned home with a gammy leg.
	He thought and dreamed about his mates.
	He had nightmares about the war.
	He never forgot his mates.
	On ANZAC day, he went to the Dawn Service.

	Alfred was one of the forgotten Aboriginal soldiers.
