

Task for The Garret: Don Watson

Culminating Rich Assessment Task

Students are to use the transcript for a speech that they prepared as a synthesising task in Activity three and develop it into a speech to be delivered to an actual audience.

- The genre for the speech is hortatory/analytical exposition and the purpose is to persuade.
- Students are to decide on the sort of audience for their speech and the context in which it will be delivered.
- Students should rehearse their speech, paying particular attention to such features of spoken language as pace, pitch, rhythm, volume and stress.
