

Task for Speak Chinese, Fang Fang!

Activity 12: Putting the story together again

BEGINNING (orientation)	MIDDLE (Problem or complication)					END (Resolution)
	Event 1	Event 2	Event 3	Event 4	Event 5
Fang Fang was born in China but now lives in Australia with her parents. She is Australian. Some of Fang Fang's school friends were also born in other countries. Fang Fang and her friends speak English to each other.	At home Fang Fang's mother and father only speak Chinese. Fang Fang's mother speaks Chinese to the neighbours when they play mah-jong together. Fang Fang is not happy.	Fang Fang plays the piano for her mother's friends. She doesn't like to speak Chinese to them.	Fang Fang and her mother go shopping and have pork dumplings and green tea for lunch. Fang Fang's mother speaks Chinese to Fang Fang but Fang Fang always speaks English.	Fang Fang sees her friend Amy. She is with her mother. Fang Fang's mother does not understand English well. Fang Fang is embarrassed.	Fang Fang's cousin is coming to visit her. She is from China. Fang Fang will have to speak Chinese with her. Fang Fang is cross.	Fang Fang's cousin arrives. Her name is Lily. Fang Fang learns that Lily and her like a lot of the same things. She learns that Lily speaks English as well as Chinese. Fang Fang is surprised. Fang Fang speaks Chinese with Lily.