Think deeply about what you've learnt in this unit of work. Draw upon the characters, themes, points of view and historical elements studied. What is it that you would like to further explore? How could this be represented?

Ideas to explore:
- How does Australia feel about its history? Why does Australia hide its history?
- Why does history repeat itself in Australia?
- The effect of colonisation on Aboriginal Australia
- Australia Day/Invasion Day in Australia.

Ideas for presentation:
- graphic essay
- feature article
- poem
- speech/debate/presentation
- short film
- song
- opinion piece/letter.

Assessment task requirements:

Analysis
- Discusses the emotional connection between our past and our future
- Analyses perspectives on Australian History
- Discusses how the perspective has affected our history
- Uses symbolism to represent themes in the text.

Language:
- Uses accurate spelling, punctuation, and grammar
- Selects appropriate vocabulary and quotes
- Edits for clarity and meaning.
