

Task for Us Mob Walawurru

Indigenous vs non-Indigenous ways of seeing the world

Worldview	Indigenous	Non-Indigenous	Justification from the text
Way of seeing the 'Country'	See the country as sacred, to be nurtured and cherished. Aboriginal people belong TO country.	See the country to be used and exploited. Country belongs TO white people.	(p. 15) – Luritja way of seeing the country. (p. 126) – making holes in the country to build dams.
Belief systems			(p. 4)
Values

Family life
Use of natural resources		Mining and farming – cattle grazing
Conservation issues
Crime and punishment	Payback – spearing for dishonouring another ‘people’

Competition/co-operation			When Ruby waited for Maisy in the running race so that they could win together. (p. 70)
Individual ownership			Page 14. 'Us mob know that nobody can ever own the country'
Obligations			