

HOW TO BEE

WRITING TASK

The dedication from the author reads:

To all the kids who face hard times with courage, and stand tall for the ones they love.

Select and write about ONE character from How to Bee who, in your opinion, will help a kid to face hard times with courage when they read this book.

What we are looking for in your answer

1. Refer to a specific example and/or incident and explain how this supports the audience to be courageous. Challenge your writing by including how this supports a theme of the novel.
2. Pick two examples of how the author has used characterisation to develop a connection between the audience and the character – why does the reader relate to the character?

Remember to...

1. Plan your work.
2. Start with an introduction.
3. Write in sentences.
4. Use paragraphs to group and organise your sentences and ideas.
5. Select vocabulary to support your opinion.
6. Proofread and edit your work before submitting your final copy.
