

Task for Girl on Wire

Emotions and events graph

Select one of the main events that you have marked on your graph. Explain why you think the character would have been feeling that way.

- What evidence can you use from the text and/or illustrations to show that this event would make the character feel this way?
- How do your own experiences help you to connect to the emotions the character is feeling in this moment?