

Task for Single Asian Female

Food as equaliser

On p. 37, Paul describes food as having equalising or universal properties. Using evidence from Single Asian Female, record the ways in which his statement is proven true or false.

Consider the role of preparing and consuming food, as well as the notion of dining and sharing food and/or a beverage with another person.

True	False
Zoe and Paul share a drink together and swap stories of their upbringings in immigrant families.
